

I think Sinclair Broadcasting should have the right to broadcast it's documentary about John Kerry. It amazes me that some would attempt to weaken the first amendment by censoring them, abridging their and our rights.

Further, I believe the statements sent from the Dixie Chicks websight should be discounted as they don't require people to make their own statements; just click on some links and forward the Dixie Chick's views.

Thank you.